Recent Arrival! 2023 Land Rover Range Rover Sport SE White

Jaguar Land Rover Schaumburg is proud to present this striking 2023 Range Rover Sport SE 360, powered by a responsive 3.0-liter turbocharged engine and finished in Fuji White with a luxurious Caraway perforated Windsor leather interior. Blending athletic performance, sophisticated design, advanced technology and legendary Land Rover capability, this Range Rover Sport is exceptionally equipped for both everyday driving and long-distance travel.

The Fuji White exterior is complemented by the Black Exterior Package, creating a dramatic contrast that accentuates the Sport's bold, sculpted design. 21-inch Dark Satin Gray wheels add an athletic finishing touch, while distinctive LED lighting, a commanding grille and signature Range Rover styling give this SUV a confident presence from every angle.

Inside, the cabin features beautiful Caraway perforated Windsor leather seating, providing a sophisticated and inviting environment. The Ebony headlining adds an upscale finishing touch and coordinates beautifully with the interior. Premium materials, thoughtful design and meticulous craftsmanship create the refined atmosphere expected from a Range Rover.

The Cold Climate Package adds valuable comfort for four-season driving, with heated features designed to keep occupants warm when temperatures drop. Laminated front and side glass further enhance the premium experience by helping reduce outside road noise while contributing to a quieter, more comfortable cabin.

The Range Rover Sport SE 360 is equipped with advanced technology designed to make every drive more intuitive and enjoyable. Its modern digital interfaces and infotainment system provide convenient access to vehicle functions, navigation, entertainment and connectivity. A comprehensive selection of driver-assistance features provides added confidence and awareness behind the wheel.

Performance is at the heart of the Range Rover Sport. The 3.0-liter turbocharged powertrain delivers strong, smooth acceleration, while sophisticated chassis engineering provides a balanced combination of comfort, control and responsiveness. Land Rover's renowned all-wheel-drive capability and advanced terrain technology give the Sport impressive versatility when conditions become challenging, while its composed road manners make it equally enjoyable around town or on the highway.

With its Fuji White exterior, Black Exterior Package, 21-inch Dark Satin Gray wheels, Caraway Windsor leather, Ebony headlining, Cold Climate Package and laminated glass, this 2023 Range Rover Sport SE 360 offers a distinctive combination of luxury, performance, technology and capability. It delivers the commanding presence and refined driving experience that make the Range Rover Sport one of the most desirable luxury SUVs on the road.
