Description

2025 Land Rover Defender 110 S Exceptionally Equipped Air Suspension Advanced Off-Road Pack

Some Defenders are built to blend in. This one was built to be remembered.

Finished in timeless Fuji White over Ebony Windsor Leather, this 2025 Land Rover Defender 110 S is loaded with thousands of dollars in factory options that make it stand out from the average Defender on the market. With just 16,789 miles, this California-owned Defender delivers the iconic capability Land Rover is known for while adding the premium comfort and technology buyers are searching for.

What really separates this Defender is its factory equipment. The Air Suspension Pack provides outstanding ride quality on the highway while giving you the ability to raise the vehicle for serious off-road adventures. The Advanced Off-Road Capability Pack adds another level of confidence with advanced terrain technologies, while the Tow Hitch Receiver means it's ready for everything from weekend toys to camping trailers.

Inside, you'll enjoy luxurious Ebony Windsor Leather Seating, the Premium Upgrade Interior Pack, Premium Interior Protection & Storage Pack, Three-Zone Climate Control, Cabin Air Purification Plus, and the highly desirable ClearSight Interior Rear View Mirror, giving you an unobstructed digital view behind the vehicle even when the cargo area is full.

Additional highlights include:
